

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

Was it because Charles Dudley Warner had "had experience" with ordinary gifts that he was impelled to speak out in meetings like this:

But consider how full the world is of holiday goods that are of no earthly use and are not even artistic, and how about life itself? how strewed are many drawings, pictures, not for holiday goods, but for objects of beauty.

Consider it, indeed! And then consider how full our warerooms still are of just those "objects of beauty" that the right people of taste, Goldsmiths, Verne, Proctor's, $40.00; Verne Martin Cabinets, $33.00. These are indissolubly associated with the needs of one's daily life; and how lasting such gifts are and how easily they are obtained, if you only

WEBER PIANOS

WEBER PIANOS have been before the public for half a century, and now hold a supreme position in the piano world. This fact alone is decisive proof of the genuine worth of these pianos, for had they not again and again justified their claims upon public confidence, they could never have achieved such a splendid triumph over interested opposition and criticism, during so long a period. Their success is due to the fact that they recommend themselves.
